

BINKLEY'S

FUNERAL SERVICE

Binkley's Funeral Service is an independantly owned and operated funeral home in southwest Saskatchewan, with locations in Maple Creek & Leader. We also serve the surrounding communities and area.

We are looking for a licenced Funeral Director/Embalmer, or someone wanting to start a career in funeral service as an apprentice. The position will be based in Maple Creek, SK. A picturesque town nesled against the Cypress Hills <https://visitcypresshills.ca/>

The duties and responsibilities will include all aspects of funeral service.

- Arranging and directing services
- Preparing human remains for visitations
- Removal and transfers of human remains
- Some administrative and accounting support
- Designing and printing service folders, candles, etc.
- Light facilities maintenance & car care
- Occasional weekend and night work
- On call rotation

You will need to have;

- A strong desire to help families in their time of need
- A SK funeral/embalmers licence or ability get www.fcscs.ca/
- If starting a funeral service career, the ability to enroll in <https://ccfs.ca/>
- To be self motivated and work independently without supervision
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills
- A SK drivers licence or ability to get.
- Decent computer & tech skills

Binkley's Funeral Service offers competitive wages and benefits program. We will also assist in relocation or education costs.

If this sounds like you, please send your resume to Norman Fiss at nfiss@protonmail.com All applications will be held in the strictest confidentiality.

Kindest Regards

Norman Fiss

www.binkleysfuneralservice.com/