

Funeral and Cremation Services Council of Saskatchewan
Bylaws – New and revised by Council and approved by the Superintendent of Funeral & Cremation Services since the
May 24th, 2018 Annual General Meeting

CURRENT:  2060 CERTIFICATION PROCEDURES – STUDENT CREMATORIUM TECHNICIAN  (1) A person who wishes to obtain a certificate as a crematorium technician shall: (a) have the crematorium owner make application to the council on form 23; (b) pay the fees stipulated in bylaw 9000; (c) work at a licensed crematorium for a period of not less than seven days under the direct supervision of a certified crematorium technician who is working at the location indicated on the application; (d) observe 5 cremations and conduct 10 cremations; (e) attend and successfully complete a course of instruction on crematorium procedures, safety and operations and any other requirements approved by the council; and (2) A student crematorium technician may apply to council administration to write the crematorium technician jurisprudence examination only after written confirmation has been received from the crematorium owner that the conditions in subsection (1) have been satisfied. (3) The fee for writing any supplemental examination shall be the fee stipulated in bylaw 9000.	REVISED:  2060 CERTIFICATION PROCEDURES – STUDENT CREMATORIUM TECHNICIAN  (1) A person who wishes to obtain a certificate as a crematorium technician shall: (a) have the crematorium owner make application to the council on form 23; (b) pay the fees stipulated in bylaw 9000; (c) work at a licensed crematorium for a period of not less than seven days under the direct supervision of a certified crematorium technician who is working at the location indicated on the application; (d) observe 5 cremations and conduct 10 cremations; (e) successfully complete a course of instruction on crematorium procedures, safety and operations and any other requirements approved by the council; and (2) A student crematorium technician may apply to council administration to write the crematorium technician jurisprudence examination only after written confirmation has been received from the crematorium owner that the conditions in subsection (1) have been satisfied. (3) The fee for writing any supplemental examination shall be the fee stipulated in bylaw 9000. Rationale: Training courses are now both online and in person.
---	---