

Licensed Funeral Director/Embalmer

Warren's Funeral Home is an independently owned and operated funeral home and we take great pride in providing funeral service experience to Swift Current, SK and surrounding area since 1926. Swift Current is located in the southwest part of Saskatchewan and has a population of 16,000 people as well as large rural community.

We are seeking a candidate to join our team who is a funeral director/licensed embalmer or a recently graduated qualified student. Experience is an asset, but newly licensed individuals will be considered as well. The position requires a person with a strong work ethic, organizational and multi-tasking skills, and are able to work within a group environment or independently.

Our business provides a competitive salary, group health insurance package and pension plan. If you are committed and dependable and want to be a part of our firm, we would like to hear from you. Please fax or email your resume to:
