

Are you committed to excellence?

Do you strive to exceed expectations?

Speers Funeral and Cremation Services is seeking a dedicated, passionate professional to join our team. As one of Saskatchewan's premiere funeral service providers, we have been a fixture in Regina and surrounding area for 115 years. We provide unequalled care to over 800 families a year and have a strong reputation for service in the community.

We are seeking a full-time Funeral Director to add to our dynamic team. The ideal candidate would have a valid Funeral Director license or be enrolled in an accredited program. An embalming license is not required but would be considered an asset. Assistance with transferring licenses from outside Saskatchewan will be provided if needed.

Why Work at Speers?

- High employee retention rate. Our staff have over 350 years of combined experience in Funeral Service.
- A positive, supportive, collaborative, learning focused organizational culture.
- We are recognized as progressive leaders in our profession.
- On-call transfer team – you get to sleep at night!
- Schedule rotation that encourages a work/home life balance.
- Employee benefits package.

The following key competencies are expected from all Speers Funeral Chapel team members:

- Customer Focus
- Effective Leadership
- Strong Communication Skills
- Proactive Commitment to the Team
- Willingness to Accept and Lead Change
- Self Motivated
- Strong Attention to Detail and Follow Through
- Results Oriented and Accountable
- Flexibility
